

The Healer of Broken Hearts

September 15, 2024

Text: Psalm 147:1-6

God is a _____ Healer.

God is a _____.

God is a _____.

God is _____.

God _____.

Life Enrichment

What about today's teaching challenged, disturbed, or encouraged you?

- What would you say are life's most difficult or darkest circumstances? Why did you choose those?
- Why do you think focusing on Who God is helps us during difficult times?
- Why is praise from a demoralized heart so helpful?
- How does seeing God as a diligent and caring nurse help us face the process of healing from life's traumas?
- What happens when God doesn't immediately fulfill His promises? How can this waiting positively shape our relationship with Him?
- If God knows the stars by name, how much more do you think He cares for His beloved children? How should this truth shape the way we think about ourselves and others?
- How does seeing God as victor help us when we are going through adversity?
- When you have faced seemingly hopeless situations, how have you leaned on God's sustaining power? How can your experiences help others learn to lean on Him as well?